DETAILED ACTION

Claims 10-13 have been withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 06/30/09.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over EP 0648797 or JP 2000-273175 or JP 04-139215, they are of record on 1449.

EP 0648797 discloses a process for the production of poly(arylene sulfide) comprising subjecting a poly(arylene sulfide) to an organic acid treatment in aliquid mixture composed of an organic solvent and water, and then thoroughly washing the thus-treated poly(arylene sulfide) (see page 20, claim 1) in that the poly(arylene sulfide) is a polymer obtained by reacting an alkali metal sulfide with a polyhalogenated aromatic compound in a polar organic solvent (see page 20, claim 8) comprising organic amide solvent, ketone, alcohols---(see page 4, lines 30-45).

JP 2000-273175 discloses the purification of polyarylene sulfide resin by washing the resin in a softened or molten state with a mixed solvent comprising an aprotic solvent such as amide solvent and water;

JP-04-139215 discloses the removal of residual alkali metallic salts by washing a PS prepared by reacting an alkali metal (hydro)sulfide with a dihalogen aromatic compound in a polar solvent to produce PS particles which are subsequently washed with an organic solvent having a low boiling point than that of water and compatible with the polar solvent and water and then washed with water.

The disclosures of the references differ from the instant claims in that they do not disclose the specific steps of the process, as in claim 9.

However, these steps of the process are included in the broad teachings of the references. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select the steps from the references within the limitation of the instant claims since they have been shown to be effective in a similar system and thus would have been expected to provide adequate results. There is no showing of unexpected results derived from said selection.
